

Mono Pitched Rooflights

The mono rooflight has a proven to be very versatile within your pitched roof extension and can adapted to your exact specification and cope with existing pitches from 5 to 45 degrees and even tailoring the design to a 'cranked' bar option to work within your unique requirements.

They can incorporate electric or manual ventilation and all glass options or finishes, both solar and labour saving, to enable a modern and functional addition to your home.

