I am a member of the dpcaac and dpnf, but am writing as a private individual. I realise that I am two hours past the deadline for comments, but had Easter Sunday commitments.

I have lived in the area [REDACTED] and now on the Brookfield Estate. I used the Brookfield Hall for community use, especially when my daughter was young and am concerned that this will be reduced with the change to a school for 4 to 11 year olds. Our Neighbourhood Plan (Cw1) aims to 'retain and develop Dartmouth Park's community facilities'.

It will be difficult, when after five years there will be six full time staff and twenty pupils, not to use private transport to travel to and from the school. How will they travel to and from, for example, Highgate Wood?

I am also concerned about the potential change in local demographic, especially with the closure of three local primary schools. The fees may well be too expensive for many local families.

Thank you,
Eileen Willmott
