Hi

May I ask a question please. The dentist I mentioned in my previous communication is now discussing taking the purchase / lease forward with the owner, for the ground and lower at 94 Mill Lane. They were discussing the upper floors. Could you tell me if residential can be used for consulting rooms (not surgeries) - It all changed so much over covid. I suspect not, but they asked me to enquire.

The good news is we have a serious interest in keeping the commercial. I do hope the planning applications don't get approved and scupper this.

Many thanks in advance
Sarah
