For letting a residential dwelling.

1. This Tenancy Agreement is for letting furnished or unfurnished residential accommodation on an assured short hold tenancy within the provisions of the Housing Act 1988 as amended by Part III of the Housing Act 1996. As such, this is a legal document and should not be used without adequate knowledge of the law of Landlord and Tenant.
2. This agreement may be used for residential tenancies of three years or less. Agreements for tenancies of a longer duration should be drawn up by deed.
3. A Notice of assured short hold tenancy need no longer be served on the Tenant for new tenancies created on or after February 28th 1997.

Note for Tenants

This tenancy agreement is a legal and binding contract and the Tenant is responsible for payment of the rent for the entire agreed term. The agreement may not be terminated early unless the agreement contains a break clause, or written permission is obtained from the Landlord. In the event of the tenant terminating this agreement outside of its agreed terms the tenant will be liable for the landlord's loss of fees and any rent due until the property is re-let or the end of the tenancy, whichever occurs sooner. If you are unsure of your obligations under this agreement, then you are advised to take independent legal advice before signing.
