[1] Scheme responsible for the protection of your eligible deposit

Your eligible deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your bank, building society or credit union should occur, your eligible deposits would be repaid up to £85,000 by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme.

[2] General limit of protection

If a covered deposit is unavailable because a bank, building society or credit union is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by a Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers a maximum of £85,000 per bank, building society or credit union. This means that all eligible deposits at the same bank, building society or credit union are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance a depositor holds a savings account with £80,000 and a current account with £20,000, he or she will only be repaid £85,000.

This method will also be applied if a bank, building society or credit union operates under different trading names. Marcus by Goldman Sachs also trades under the name Goldman Sachs International Bank. This means that all eligible deposits with one or more of these trading names are in total covered up to £85,000.

In some cases eligible deposits which are categorised as 'temporary high balances' are protected above £85,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such eligible deposits become legally transferable. These are eligible deposits connected with certain events including:

- Certain transactions relating to the depositor's current or prospective only or main residence or dwelling.
- A death, or the depositor's marriage or civil partnership, divorce, retirement, dismissal, redundancy or invalidity.
- The payment to the depositor of insurance benefits or compensation for criminal injuries or wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under fscs.org.uk

[3] Limit of protection for joint accounts

In the case of joint accounts, the limit of £85,000 applies to each depositor. However, eligible deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of £85,000.

[4] Reimbursement

The responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme is the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, 10th Floor Beaufort House, 15 St Botolph Street, London, EC3A 7QU. Tel: 0800 678 1100 or 020 7741 4100. Email: ICT@fscs.org.uk. It will repay your eligible deposits (up to £85,000) within 20 working days until 31 December 2018; within 15 working days from 1 January 2019 until 31 December 2020; within 10 working days from 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2023; and within seven working days from 1 January 2024 onwards, save where specific exceptions apply.

Where the FSCS cannot make the repayable amount within seven working days, it will, from 1 June 2016 until 31 December 2023, ensure that you have access to an appropriate amount of your covered deposits to cover the cost of living (in the case of a depositor which is an individual) or to cover necessary business expenses or operating costs (in the case of a depositor which is not an individual or a large company) within five working days of a request. If you have not been repaid within these deadlines you should contact the Deposit Guarantee Scheme since the time to claim reimbursement may be barred after a certain time limit.

Further information can be obtained under fscs.org.uk.

Other important information

In general, all retail depositors and businesses are covered by Deposit Guarantee Schemes. Exceptions for certain deposits are stated on the website of the responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Your bank, building society or credit union will also inform you of any exclusions from protection which may apply. If deposits are eligible, the bank, building society or credit union shall also confirm this on the statement of account.

FSCS exclusion list

A deposit is excluded from protection if:

1. The holder and any beneficial owner of the deposit have never been identified in accordance with money laundering requirements. For further information, contact your bank, building society or credit union.
2. The deposit arises out of transactions in connection with which there has been a criminal conviction for money laundering.
3. It is a deposit made by a depositor which is one of the following:
 - credit institution
 - financial institution
 - investment firm
 - insurance undertaking
 - reinsurance undertaking
 - collective investment undertaking
 - pension or retirement fund¹
 - public authority, other than a small local authority.

For further information about exclusions, refer to the FSCS website at fscs.org.uk.

^[1] Deposits by personal pension schemes, stakeholder pension schemes and occupational pension schemes of micro, small and medium sized enterprises are not excluded.

S M J GROUPS

FLAT 4 267 EVERSOLT STREET
LONDON
NW1 1BA

Your TV Licence allows television receivers to be installed and used at the premises specified and at the other places detailed, subject to the terms and conditions stated.

The licence is issued by TV Licensing on behalf of the BBC under The Communications Act 2003.

Terms and conditions of the TV Licence

About your TV Licence.

This licence lets you use and install TV receiving equipment at the licensed place. You are covered to:

- a) watch and record programmes as they're being shown on TV or live on an online TV service, including programmes streamed over the internet and satellite programmes from outside the UK, and
- b) watch or download BBC programmes on demand, including catch up TV, on BBC iPlayer.

This can be on any device, including TVs, desktop computers, laptops, mobile phones, tablets, games consoles, digital boxes, DVD, Blu-ray and VHS recorders, or anything else.

You and anyone who normally lives here with you can:

- Use and install TV receiving equipment here at the licensed place.
- Use and install TV receiving equipment in vehicles, boats and caravans (except non-touring caravans when someone is watching or recording TV at the licensed place).
- Use TV receiving equipment anywhere on any device powered solely by its own internal batteries.

You and anyone who normally works here with you can:

- Use and install TV receiving equipment here at the licensed place.
- Use and install TV receiving equipment in vehicles, boats or caravans used for business purposes.

This licence does not cover areas occupied solely by tenants, lodgers or paying guests.

The licence might also not cover areas that are self-contained, areas covered by separate legal arrangements or areas of business premises used for a different purpose. Please contact us to find out more.

Other conditions.

We can cancel or change your licence. If we cancel it, we will let you know. If we change the licence conditions, we will publish a general notice on the BBC website and, if we consider it appropriate, in other national media. Our Officers may visit to check our records and inspect your TV receiving equipment. You don't have to let them in. Your TV receiving equipment must not cause unreasonable interference to radio or TV reception.

Even if you have a black and white TV, you need a colour licence to record programmes. This is because DVD, VHS and digital box recorders record in colour. A black and white licence is only valid if you use a digital box that can't record TV programmes.
