Dear Ms Muthoora

I write to strenuously object to the planning application ref 2023/1873/P for 5 Conybeare NW3 3S.

My wife and I live at _____, the adjoining house, and the proposed development will greatly diminish the light we receive in our living room, the kitchen dining area and our bedroom. Our courtyard is small and the upward extension of the adjoining property will loom over the space substantially reducing our enjoyment of the private external area available to us.

We intend to pursue an action under rights to light legislation and we would ask that you consider this light reduction when the merits of the application are considered.

Thank you for your attention and I would be grateful if you would acknowledge receipt of this email.

Yours faithfully

Geoffrey Reid
