Dear Ms Quigley,

I am a regular patron to Officina00 and think its one of the best things that has happened to the area in some time.

The ground floor is activated from what was previously a closed space to the public.

On that note, the redevelopment was designed to not only welcome people to the ground floor restaurant but also the terrace to the side.

This together with the adjoining pocket park will liven up Chitty Street in a way in which this generation has never benefited from.

In fact, at the moment, Chitty is not as welcoming as it could be and dining on the terrace will certainly add greatly to the local environment.

I do hope you look favourably on their application and see all the merits as mentioned above.

With thanks best
