

From: James Richmond
Sent: 30 July 2023 09:16
To: Planning
Cc: David Fowler; Save Museum Street
Subject: 2023/2510/P & 2023/2653/L Objector

This tower will dominate the cityscape in this historic part of London. It is far too tall and bulky and will deprive light from listed buildings like the British Museum and even Soho will suffer from its out of scale height of 74 metres. It will also set a precedent for further developments that will damage the fabric of the community and it is not environmentally sustainable.

I, therefore, object most strongly.

James Richmond (Endell Street)