2023/2565/P	Nick Zangwill	04/08/2023 11:11:10	COMMNT	This is far better now, without the protruding roof thing. I am not clear if there is still the intention to use the roof space as a terrace as in the previous application. Perhaps not. The new sliding doors, don't look great, and they are not as appropriate to the building, and not as nice as one large set of French doors would. But I guess there is precedent for sliding doors in the surroundings. I would prefer the look of French to sliding doors, but I am not sure if that is sufficient for an objection.
