4a. Eligibility - The current building and site

Was the current building constructed between 1 July 1948 and 5 March 2018?

☒ Yes ☐ No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Have additional storeys already been added to the original building (as it stood on 1 July 1948, or as built after that date; or, if 'Crown land', as it stood on 7 June 2006, or as built after that date)?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Was the current use of the building as dwellinghouses only granted by virtue of permitted development rights under Schedule 1, Part 3, Class G, M, MA, N, O, P, PA or Q of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Is any part of the land or site on which the building is located:

- in a conservation area;
- in an area of outstanding natural beauty;
- in an area specified by the Secretary of State for the purposes of enhancement and protection of the natural beauty and amenity of the countryside;
- in the Broads;
- in a National Park;
- in a World Heritage Site; or
- in a site of special scientific interest;

☐ Yes ☒ No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

4b. Eligibility - The proposed development

Will the proposed additional storeys only be constructed on the principal part of the building (i.e. the main part of the building excluding any front, side or rear extension of a lower height, whether this forms part of the original building or a subsequent addition)?

☒ Yes ☐ No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

4b. Eligibility - The proposed development (continued)

Would the floor to ceiling height, measured internally, of any proposed additional storey exceed:

- 3 metres; or
- the floor to ceiling height, measured internally, of any existing storey of the principal part of the existing building

☐ Yes ☒ No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Would the proposed extended building's:

- height exceed 18m (as measured from ground level to the highest part of the roof); or
- roof be:
 - more than 3.5 metres higher than the highest part of the existing roof, where the existing building consists of one storey above ground level; or
 - more than 7 metres higher than the highest part of the existing roof, where the existing building consists of more than one storey above ground level.

☐ Yes ☒ No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

If the dwellinghouse is not detached, would the proposed extension result in the highest part of the roof exceeding 3.5 metres above either:

- the highest part of the roof of the building it is joined to (e.g. by party wall or adjoining main wall); or
- if in a terrace, the highest part of the roof of any building in the row it is situated

☐ Yes ☒ No / The dwellinghouse is detached

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will the roof pitch of the principal part of the proposed extended dwellinghouse be the same as the roof pitch of the existing dwellinghouse?

☒ Yes ☐ No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will the development include a window in any wall or roof slope forming a side elevation of the building?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will the materials used in any exterior work be of a similar appearance to those used in the construction of the exterior of the existing dwellinghouse?

☒ Yes ☐ No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Following the development, will the dwellinghouse be used within Use Class C3 and for no other purpose, unless that purpose is ancillary to the primary use as a dwellinghouse?

☒ Yes ☐ No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

4c. Eligibility - Related operations and works

Will any proposed engineering operations reasonably necessary to construct the additional storeys include:

- provision of visible support structures on or attached to the exterior of the building upon completion of the development; or
- anything other than works within the existing curtilage of the building to strengthen existing walls and foundations

☐ Yes ☒ No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

5. Description of Proposed Works, Impacts and Risks

Please describe the proposed development, including:

- details of any works proposed;
- the external appearance of the dwellinghouse, including the design and architectural features of the principal elevation (and any side elevation that fronts a highway)

PROPOSED WORKS INCLUDE AN ERECTION OF AN ADDITIONAL STOREY OVER
