Dear planning, I couldn't see the comment form online, even though it is 2nd December now.

Commenting on the application for flat 4, 11 Langland Gardens, NW3.

I very much dislike the glass and steel look for balconies.

There are some others opposite on Frogal Lane. This one would, however, stand out, by contrast with other balconies on this block of two buildings, and other neighbouring houses. The black painting steel look is the one on the next door buildings, and this one would stand out unpleasantly, not fitting the others, that are more in keeping with the building style.
