2023/3861/P	Dee Wright	12/01/2024 12:27:10	COMNOT	This is appalling. Those who live around the perimeter of the park whose complaints are driving this are not speaking for the vast majority of residents and visitors who have a right to access the park at all hours. It is not a private garden. The park has always been popular, and they would have known that when they moved in. If they don't like it then they should move. Claims of extensive problems are an exaggeration as the crime figures do not verify that. Disgruntled home owners do not get to override both Camden's and London's Open Spaces Policy. Additionally, the assertion that there has been extensive consultation in the area is simply untrue. To shut the park like this is both discriminatory and alienating to the majority. It is a PUBLIC park and should remain so at all times.
