'Hi Jade
Hope you are well and really appreciate your patience on this.
I have discussed this internally and the Caraf Centre contained some sort of community use. It seems from what you explained to me the other week, that the charity in question would use the space as their offices but also provide services from this site? if this is true than a planning permission would probably not be required and you can go ahead with occupying the site.
Please note that the information contained in this email represents an officer's opinion and is without prejudice to further consideration of this matter by the Development Management section or the Council's formal decision.
Hope this helps
Kind regards,
Ewan Campbell'

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.
For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
