2024/0567/T	Peter Croft	20/02/2024 10:24:34	OBJ	I am rather shocked by this application to fell a splendid mature yew in the garden of 54 Crediton Hill simply because some of its growth overhangs the tennis club. It is telling that the accompanying picture only shows the tennis club side, and doesn't seem to have any concern for the rest of the tree in 54's garden. The obvious remedy for overhanging branches is to cut them back, not wipe out the whole tree. I strongly object to this application.
