

Room-only Assured Shorthold Tenancy Agreement

Provided under part 1 of the Housing Act 1988 and amended under part 3 of the Housing Act 1996

This Agreement is dated 17/09/20

(This date should not be completed until all parties have signed the Agreement and want it to come into effect)

This Agreement contains the terms and obligations of the Tenancy. It sets out the legally binding obligations that will be placed upon you (the Tenant) and us (the Landlord) once the following has occurred:

- 1) The Agreement is dated above.
- 2) All Initial Funds referred to within this Agreement have been received by us or our Agent in cleared funds.

You should read this Agreement carefully to ensure you are prepared to agree to it all and that it contains everything you require.

This Agreement is an Assured Shorthold Tenancy (as defined in Section 19A of the Housing Act 1988). The repossession arrangements in Section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 apply to this Agreement. This means that you cannot claim any legal rights to stay on once we have ended the Tenancy and a court order says you must leave.

If you do not understand this Agreement, or anything in it, then you should ask for an explanation before signing it. Alternatively, you should consider consulting a solicitor, Citizen's Advice Bureau, or Housing Advice Centre for assistance.

Where no lead tenant is agreed, as soon as is practicable at the end of the Tenancy, we will return the Deposit minus any agreed deductions or money still in dispute. A proportion of the deposit will be allocated to each tenant or person paying towards the Deposit individually. This proportion will be based on the respective amounts of the Deposit paid by them at the start of the Tenancy, minus a proportion of any agreed deductions or money still in dispute.

5.7 If someone else has paid towards the Deposit other than a Tenant, then you must provide their name and address below. Otherwise, you confirm that the only people who have paid towards the Deposit are Tenants.

6.0 Consents

6.1 We confirm that all necessary consents have been obtained to enable us to enter into this Agreement (whether from a superior landlord, lenders, mortgagees, insurers, or others).

7.0 Conditions Specific to a House in Multiple Occupation (HMO)

7.1 You, any Permitted Occupiers, and or any guests you bring to the Building must not impede us, our contractors, or our Agent in the performance of the duties imposed on us by legislation or a licence condition (if one applies). For the avoidance of doubt, this includes, but is not limited to, refusing us, our contractors, or our Agent, access at reasonable times to perform our management duties.

7.2 You must ensure that any rubbish and or recyclable waste, is stored and disposed of in the appropriate receptacle as instructed by the local authority.

7.3 You must inform us if the receptacles we, or the local authority have provided for waste disposal are insufficient to store all the waste in the Building.

7.4 You must provide us with any reasonable information we, our Agent, and or local authority require in the performance of our HMO management duties.

7.5 Where the Building has a licence under Part 2 of the Housing Act 2004 no more than <sup>1</sup> _____ person/s aged over _____ 10 years old may use the Property as sleeping accommodation.

This clause does not give automatic permission to assign, sublet or allow a lodger to live in the Property without our written permission (which will not be unreasonably withheld).

7.6 You must comply with any reasonable requests or instructions we, our Agent, or the local authority make to you in the performance of our HMO management duties.

7.7 Where the Building has a licence under Part 2 of the Housing Act 2004, you and any Permitted Occupiers must comply with all of the conditions of that licence.

8.0 Ending the tenancy

8.1 To end the periodic continuation of the tenancy you must provide us with written notice you intend to leave to the service address provided in Section A of this Agreement or, if we consent to service of notice via email then to the email address provided in clause 10.2 of this Agreement. The notice must end on the last day of the Rent Period and must be of sufficient length to be considered valid. This means that for tenancies where the Rent is paid weekly, fortnightly or four-weekly, the notice period must be at least 28 days in length. Where the Rent is paid monthly the notice must be at least one calendar month in length.

8.2 We have the right to recover possession of the Property by lawful means if:

- 8.2.1 any of the grounds listed in Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1988 as amended under the Housing Act 1996 apply (these include not paying rent, breaking a term of the tenancy and causing a nuisance or annoyance); or
- 8.2.2 the arrangements for us to repossess the property in section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 apply.

- 8.2.3 the Rent is unpaid 14 days after becoming payable whether it has been formally demanded or not;
- 8.2.4 you have breached this Agreement;
- 8.2.5 you become bankrupt;
- 8.2.6 the Tenancy is no longer an assured tenancy (including a shorthold). For example, it is no longer the only or main home of the Tenant.

This clause does not affect your rights under the Protection from Eviction Act 1977. We need a court order to repossess the Property.

8.3 We reserve the right to re-enter the Property by lawful means if you do not have the Right to Rent in the United Kingdom as determined by Section 22 of the Immigration Act 2014.

8.4 If you give us notice that you are going to leave the property before the fixed term of this Agreement has ended, you must pay our reasonable costs for reletting the Property and continue to pay the rent in advance for each rent period until a new tenant moves in. We do not have to take the Property or the Tenancy back from you early unless we want to do so.

8.5 We give you notice that we may repossess the Property under Ground 1 in Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 as we have either lived in the Property as our only or main home or plan to do so in the future.

8.6 We give you notice that the Property is _____ subject to a mortgage which was granted before the beginning of the Tenancy.

Where the Property is subject to a mortgage, we may repossess the Property under Ground 2 in the same Schedule which allows the lender to repossess it.

9.0 Effect of Termination

9.1 Termination of this Agreement ends the Tenancy but does not release you from any outstanding obligations.

10.0 Notices

10.1 We agree that any notices you give under or in relation to this Agreement which are to be given in writing may be served on the Landlord either by being left at the Service Address provided in Section A of this Agreement, by being sent to that address by first class post. Notices left at the address are deemed served on the next working day after being left at the address. Notices sent by first class post are deemed served two working days after posting.

11.0 Guarantors

11.1 If there is a guarantor for this Agreement you must tell us as soon as you become aware that any guarantor has died, become bankrupt or cancels the guarantee. For the avoidance of doubt, a guarantor is someone other than a Tenant who has agreed to guarantee your financial obligations (including, but not limited to, the Rent and any losses we incur as a result of you breaching this agreement) under this Agreement.

11.2 If it is reasonable for us to do so, within two months of us learning about this we can give you notice in writing to find a new guarantor within 28 days. We must be satisfied with your choice of guarantor. We will give you reasons as to why we need a new guarantor. That guarantor must then, within 28 days, sign a new guarantee including the same terms as the previous guarantee. This guarantee will then apply from the date the previous guarantee came to an end.
