Biodiversity net gain
Householder developments are currently exempt from biodiversity net gain requirements.
However, this exemption still needs to be confirmed by the applicant or agent when making a householder planning permission application.
✓ I/we confirm that the proposed development, if granted permission, would be exempt from the general biodiversity gain condition.
Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'general biodiversity gain condition'.
However, the 'general biodiversity gain condition' does not apply in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of Article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended).
Site Visit
Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land?

Details of the pre-application advice received
Our Conservation Officer has assessed the drawings that were submitted and has confirmed that the proposals as shown in the attached drawings would satisfy the listed building breaches. Therefore should a further application for listed building consent be submitted for the works, it is likely that the proposal would be looked upon favourably, and would satisfy the requirements contained in appeal decision once the works are implemented/have been completed.
Authority Employee/Member
With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:
(a) a member of staff(b) an elected member(c) related to a member of staff(d) related to an elected member
It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.
For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
Do any of the above statements apply? ○ Yes ⊙ No
