

Also, since raising the application I have come across this planning case which was granted in 2017 which I haven't spotted. It is in many ways similar to our case, so thought the reasoning from the planning officer for granting may be relevant.