

Application No:	Consultees Name:	Received:	Comment:	Response:
2024/0712/P	Mickey James Bonin	06/05/2024 19:58:59	COMMNT	A key criteria for Camden Council granting permission on 14th December 2023 Our Reference: APP\PREMISES-116672 under the Licensing Act 2003 New Premises Licence Application was guarantees that noise would be controlled. This would be impossible to control on a terrace and makes a mockery of Camden Council's decision on the 14 December 2023. Residents already suffer when the Standard Hotel has events on their terrace. Moreover my wife has a disability and under the Guidance Disability: Equality Act 2010 - Guidance on matters to be taken into account in determining questions relating to the definition of disability Updated 8 March 2013 Environmental effects D20. Environmental conditions may have an impact on how an impairment affects a person's ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities. Consideration should be given to the level and nature of any environmental effect. Account should be taken of whether it is within such a range and of such a type that most people would be able to carry out an activity without an adverse effect. The noise from late night events would prevent her from sleeping at night and exacerbate her disability.
2024/0712/P	Mickey James Bonin	06/05/2024 20:03:06	COMMNT	A key criteria for Camden Council granting permission on 14th December 2023 Our Reference: APP\PREMISES-116672 under the Licensing Act 2003 New Premises Licence Application was guarantees that noise would be controlled. This would be impossible to control makes a mockery of Camden Council's decision on the 14 December 2023. Residents already suffer when the Standard Hotel has events on their terrace. Moreover my wife has a disability and under the Guidance Disability: Equality Act 2010 - Guidance on matters to be taken into account in determining questions relating to the definition of disability Updated 8 March 2013 Environmental effects D20. Environmental conditions may have an impact on how an impairment affects a person's ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities. Consideration should be given to the level and nature of any environmental effect. Account should be taken of whether it is within such a range and of such a type that most people would be able to carry out an activity without an adverse effect. The noise from late night events would prevent her from sleeping at night and exacerbate her disability.