2024/0993/P	Jay	14/05/2024 10:16:28	SUPPRT	Our company runs four restaurants in the Soho/Covent Garden/Chinatown/Shafesbury area. Having Cirque du Soleil in Shafesbury will undoubtedly breathe life into the vicinity not only through arts but also by creating new jobs and driving traffic in the area. It will also help create buzz in the quieter part of Shafesbury.
2024/0993/P	Sandra Leong	14/05/2024 09:36:39	NOBJ	As a local hospitality business owner, I would be happy to support this project. As has been well documented, times are tough for hospitality and a new injection of footfall into the West End would be welcomed.
2024/0993/P	Annixon	13/05/2024 15:23:04	SUPPRT	I think it will be hugely beneficial to the area and bring in much needed life to a prominent part of the city.

2024/0993/P	John Doe	10/05/2024 10:33:26	OBJ	I just discovered this space last night whilst out with a friend. We chose to meet at Outernet London Charing Cross Rd (which is a really cool space BTW, good job London) in order to check out the Banksy exhibition then grab some food & drinks. Somewhere, sometime I needed to get away from the main roads. As it was a glorious spring evening, there were people everywhere, happy, having lots of fun creating lots of noise and hectic environment. It was really nice to see, but as a human on the spectrum without my noise cancelling headphones on, it started to take an emotional toll on me... That is until we happened to see this beautiful garden in the middle of the city. Peering through the fence, we were jealous of the residents who had access to this space. Lots of greenery, rolling (mini) hills, flowers, plants & seating. Then we turned the corner and noticed there was a gate, it was open and I noticed a poster with words. "Community" & "save" are the only ones I can recall, but the QR code brought me here. I have never really signed a petition, let alone written a formal objection to a council, but felt obliged this time. Please consider what a space like this can assist with people like me. 5 minutes sitting here calmed me down, anxiety left me. My heartbeat slowed down, I didn't feel like shouting at people, or worse hitting someone. I wasn't angry or upset with the world. We simply got up and proceeded to walk through the masses again in order to get some food and at this point desperately in need a nice cold beer. PS: apologies for the bad grammar & spelling, it's been a while since I written anything more than a sentence or two :)
2024/0993/P	Emma Bevan	10/05/2024 11:49:20	COMMNT	I cannot think of a better home for a theatre based company like Cirque du Soleil, and the revenue it will bring to the area will be huge from employment to hospitality industry and the restaurants including footfall for all the smaller shops. Tourism will have a massive impact.

2024/0993/P	Sam Taylor	13/05/2024 10:39:00	SUPPRT	A thoughtful, positive incentive that appreciates the authenticity of performing arts and retains a strong piece of heritage, whilst providing a social and economic boost. I would look forward to visiting myself.
2024/0993/P	Stephen Birks	13/05/2024 12:42:16	SUPPRT	Camden, and indeed London in general, has a very long and rich history with the Arts. I am fully supportive of any venture that aims to preserve and promote this vibrant history. This is then further bolstered by the secondary benefits to the local community by providing free/discounted alternatives to simply going out to pubs and clubs, and providing performances to schools and hospitals. Further the revenue that could be generated for LB Camden can only be a benefit as it flows back into improving the borough.
2024/0993/P	Joel	10/05/2024 13:29:58	SUPPRT	The project will bring thousands more visitors to Central London, supporting local businesses in the Covent Garden, Soho and Chinatown area. The project will also bring ? 125 permanent full time jobs ? £12.6m Gross Annual Value Added generated within the Greater London Economy ? £23m potential linked trip spend by theatre goers per annum... Supporting hospitality businesses in the area

2024/0993/P	Nathan Burroughs	13/05/2024 15:44:26	COMMNT	This iconic venue and building deserves to be bought back to life in the heart of the west end. Culture needs to be valued as much as any aspect of growth to our economy and enrichment of the life's of all it touches.
2024/0993/P	Tori Slater	13/05/2024 17:23:39	SUPPRT	How brilliant for London to be given these opportunities! More arts and culture, more tourism, more vibrancy, more spend.
2024/0993/P	Sue Hillman	13/05/2024 22:45:08	SUPPRT	Bringing this historic building back to life with this offering is a great idea. Cirque du Soleil is a popular show so a permanent home will be a good new attraction. Adding a stylish hotel will also be good. Please keep as many original features as absolutely possible and renovate rather than demolish.

2024/0993/P	Daniel de Freitas	14/05/2024 16:49:46	OBJ	Comment in regards to the negative impact on Phoenix Gardens. It would be a terrible lack of foresight to damage one of the very few pieces of nature in central London. Our lack of wildlife needs to be remedied, helping support spaces like this is vital.
