Supporting information requirements
Where a development proposal is likely to affect features of biodiversity or geological conservation interest, you will need to submit, with the application, sufficient information and assessments to allow the local planning authority to determine the proposal.
Failure to submit all information required will result in your application being deemed invalid. It will not be considered valid until all information required by the local planning authority has been submitted.
Your local planning authority will be able to advise on the content of any assessments that may be required.
Biodiversity net gain
Biodiversity net gain is a legal requirement for planning permission introduced on 12 February 2024. All applications are required to either provide detailed information proving there will be a biodiversity increase; or explain why they are exempt from doing so.
Find out more about biodiversity net gain, and access digital tools from our partners that can help determine if you are exempt, or produce the biodiversity metric information required.
Do you believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)) would apply?
○ Yes② No
Please add all the exemptions or transitional arrangements that apply and provide a reason why
Exemption: Development subject to the de minimis exemption (development below the threshold)
Reason for selecting exemption: The development is solely on the building and is an existing sealed surface and as such are assigned a zero score in the statutory biodiversity metric, meaning this surface are exempted from the 10% net gain requirement.
Note: Please read the help text for further information on the exemptions available and when they apply

Details of the pre-application advice received
"In principle" no objection raised for the replacement of windows and doors. However further detailed information would required to be provided on the quality of the materials and design detail of the proposed windows and doors to ensure it did not look out of character. General advice was provided regarding compliance with Policy D1 of the Camden Local Plan and it was considered the proposal would not result in amenity issues in terms of privacy, outlook or daylight and sunlight. Additionally considered the proposal would comply with Policies CC1 & CC2 of the Camden Local Plan.
