2023/4172/P	David Rey	17/05/2024 18:18:16	OBJ	I am a neighbour in the garden flat. Note that this terrace is on top of an extension - this is highly unusual and it was never built for this purpose. Neighbours on either side have the same extension and no roof terrace. The terrace will look over the garden and my neighbours garden. This will harm their right to privacy. Have my neighbours (no 70 and 74) been informed of these plans? I do not think they are aware of these plans - they should be informed. There was never meant to be a roof terrace on the extension in the first place - this had no planning permission. It is not demised to my neighbour and while I'm happy for her to use it, I'm nervous about these kind and the future implications (future use/misuse).
