Dear Mr Wong.

How do you do.

My name is Roger Colman

This morning I received notification of the above mentioned planning application.

The applicant is asking again for a balcony to be constructed at 6 Eglon Mews.

This time they seem to be applying for a balcony whose base would be 600mm higher than on previous balcony applications.

From the wording of the applicant one might get the impression that Camden's previous declining of a balcony was based on that one aspect.

Prior to you taking over the handling of this case Mr Matt Dempsey was the planning officer involved and he recommended the balcony be turned down for a number of reasons.

Might you be able to consult with Mr Dempsey about the reasons for turning down the balcony idea on several occasions please?

I am beginning to lose strength to handle all these repeat applications concerning 6 Eglon Mews.

Yours faithfully

Roger Colman
