Do you have any comments or consider that the proposal is harmful to or does not preserve the character and appearance of the conservation area?

Comment

Applications for this property have been numerous, for over 10 years. Finally new owners have applied to demolish and build a contemporary house surrounded by gardens. It was a great disappointment when the original contemporary design for neighbouring 1 Radlett Place was abandoned for another pastiche, unattractive building. It is hoped that this present application is approved and built.
