2024/1993/P	John Webster	13/06/2024 10:25:20	OBJ	My property is situated next door to the householder seeking planning permission. It has windows at lower ground floor level to a bathroom, a second bedroom and a back door. At upper ground level immediately opposite the proposed extension, there is a window to the upper hallway. I consider that, were the proposed extension built, there would be a noticeable loss of light to my property.
