2024/2695/P	Edward Docherty	25/07/2024 17:15:25	OBJNOT	Please note that a formal objection to this proposal prepared by heritage consultant Robert Bevan of Authentic Futures has been submitted by email on behalf of Edward Docherty of 61 Parliament Hill. The objection argues that the scale, form and detailed design of the proposal causes less than substantial harm to the significance of heritage assets without being outweighed by public benefits. It fails to preserve the character and appearance of the conservation area and instead calls harm to its significance.
