Hi there

This proposal smacks of KX estate profiteering.

The navigable comment from Argent is laughable.

It's an unnecessary addition to an area that has plenty of grab and go offerings to suit all budgets. Uniqlo is opening up - when we moved we were assured it would not become another high street but retain artisanal, independents so not sure why there needs to be more retail space added when there are plenty of empty retail spaces. Lower rents and fill the spaces with cooler brands like 18 Montrose and Wolf and Badger that we had before.
