2024/3306P	Talia Price, Lee Montague	16/09/2024 20:19:14	OBJ	We, the residents of Keats Close, strongly object to the 4 louvred panels serving WatchHouse 65 South End Road. These panels are causing the release of hot air and foul odors towards us when we pass by. This is unacceptable, as it exposes us and our elderly neighbors to kitchen fumes and exhaust from the Kitchen and WC of WatchHouse, as we walk along Keats Grove to South End Road for travel or to complete daily chores. We were informed, that commercial kitchens with residential units above them should be ventilated at eaves (roof level). That is why, a few years ago, Paradise restaurant, located on the ground floor of Wentworth Mansions at 49 South End Road, had to comply with this regulation and changed the way they ventilate their kitchen. Talia Price 2 Keats Close, London, NW3 2RT [REDACTED] Lee Montague 5 Keats Close, London, NW3 2RP [REDACTED]
