

I object to the large, ugly gas meter installation at the main entrance to 6 Belsize Crescent which was installed without planning permission. This is a conservation area and the street has architectural merit. The meters should be located inside the premises or in a discrete location. Centrica should be reminded of the need to apply for planning consent.

Deborah Townsend

24 Belsize Crescent
NW3 5QU