Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposals to alter, extend or demolish the listed building(s)

The Culture Service at Camden Council proposes to install a heritage blue plaque (485mm diameter) on the Judd street façade of Camden Town Hall. The proposed location on the façade is on the column immediately to the left of the entrance to the town hall at a height of 2780mm. This blue plaque will celebrate Britain’s first Caribbean Carnival, a significant national event, which happened in this building on Friday 30th January 1959.

The plaque will be ceramic and surface mounted to avoid impact on the Grade II listed façade of the building. The ceramic plaque shape is designed to be self-cleaning and will not induce rust-staining to the building (like metal plaques often do).The plaque will be attached using two screws and lime mortar, and the joint recesses will be filled. The plaque will be made and installed by Ned Haywood, specialist heritage plaque maker (including English Heritage plaques).
