DRAWING/SPECIFICATION NOTES:

1. Please do not rely on accurate scaling directly from this drawing as copying/printing can affect scaling. Always check dimensions on site

2. This drawing is best printed/viewed in A1 size. All layouts are drawn in colour to best differentiate the various system elements noted and therefore it is strongly recommended that drawings are also printed in colour.

3. For details of any associated building, electrical and mechanical design elements for this project, as applicable, please refer to the project drawing and document issue (D&D) sheets for the project.

4. The existing building base layout information is as provided by the client / end user.

5. All works noted shall comply with any site specification and/or manual requirements unless not applicable or agreed to be amended/omitted by way of a formally confirmed concession(s).
