Dear Terry

I write to provide final comments on behalf of the appellant. As the council's appeal statement does not extend their case beyond that which the appellant has already considered in their Statement of Case, no additional comments are raised in response to the council's appeal statement.

Furthermore, no comments are raised on the proposed conditions, which are concluded to be reasonable.

With reference to the third-party representation, where matters are raised that are relevant to the reasons for refusal, they have already been addressed as part of the appellants case. Outside of these points, the issues identified are either not planning matters or are not concluded to be matters in conflict by the Council.

Regards

Chris
