Excellent cafe jazz/music venue

Apr 2013 • Couples

A new excellent cafe jazz/music venue, close and intimate to listen to great music (we heard Al McSween & Omar Puento - brilliant), great diverse crowd. Tasty homemade food and good wine.

JULY 2013

Supa Fine presents Melissa James

Jul 2013 • Family

I've been to this venue before when Supa Fine presents an evening hear this on Friday 12th July

Think Lizz Wright meets Amos Lee as they cross paths with blues man, Eric Bibb and you'd be getting very close. Fusing her love of blues, folk and jazz in a bundle of soul, in song.

"They don't write 'em like that anymore...except they do. Superb singer in classic mould."

Tom Robinson, BBC 6 Music

"...great late night listening, this lady is certainly worth checking out." (Blues Matters!, August/September 2012)

"...James takes all of her musical loves - jazz, blues, soul, folk - and wraps them up into songs that achieve an astonishing array of moods and emotions." 4-stars (Jazzwise, August 2012)

Excellent +

If you are around and fancy doing something different, you must try map studio. It is the most unique place I have been to in long time.

There is so much going on between the hip hop radio station, the recording studio, the cafe, the bar, the vibe, the decor, the food, the wine, the coffee, the super interesting owner and the lovely staff, that you can do nothing but be happy and grateful to the gods that lead you to discover this jewel.

It won a best breakfast award, there are movie nights, jazz and reggae evenings... a bit of everything for everyone.

I am heading home marvelled and content

Go!
