

1. WHY is the public being forced to use this google response system when the old direct response system worked perfectly well?

i object to further assault on my senses while waiting for a bus. The proposal is aggressively intrusive and no doubt the first of many from the applicants who control vast swathes of advertising in our streets. For once, perhaps Camden could make a firm stand and say NO?

Brian Lake
46, Great Russell Street