

5.2 Scale & Massing

Massing Development

In response to the opportunities of extending the volume of the existing church, a series of massing development 3D models have been produced in search of a proposed massing that optimizes the possibilities of the site, whilst also respecting the current street scape and scale of its neighbouring properties.

Massing Development Model Studies - Viewing from Crestfield Street north