2024/5468/P	ELIZABETH MONCK	23/01/2025 18:14:56	SUPPRT	I very strongly support the introduction of lifts for all the staircases in Brookfield Mansions. Most obviously it will be of benefit to ANYONE who finds climbing stairs a difficulty. I have heard it said that having lifts will mean Brookfield becomes a colony of the elderly. But there are many others who need such help: the heavily pregnant, or those carrying a small [heavy] child; people recovering from recent hospital care; someone with a sports injury; anyone in a wheelchair. And we should remember that it is not only the 'old' who need wheel-chairs. And no matter how fit, sometimes the strongest need help carrying suitcases up and down. Thus by having the lifts we widen, rather than narrow, the people who can live here safely and with confidence. We ensure the opportunity of a mixed community, which can only be a good thing.
