

Email: planning@camden.gov.uk

Phone: 020 7974 4444 Fax: 020 7974 1680 Development Management Camden Town Hall Extension Argyle Street London WC1H 8EQ

Householder Application for Planning Permission for works or extension to a dwelling

Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)

Publication of applications on planning authority websites

Please note that the information provided on this application form and in supporting documents may be published on the Authority's website. If you require any further clarification, please contact the Authority's planning department.

Site Location
Disclaimer: We can only make recommend	dations based on the answers given in the questions.
If you cannot provide a postcode, the describely locate the site - for example "field to the	iption of site location must be completed. Please provide the most accurate site description you can, to e North of the Post Office".
Number	30
Suffix
Property Name
Address Line 1
Sumatra Road
Address Line 2
Address Line 3
Camden
Town/city
London
Postcode
NW6 1PU
•	ust be completed if postcode is not known:
Easting (x)	Northing (y)
525067	185085
Description

Applicant Details
Name/Company
Title
First name
Nadiyah
Surname
Shah
Company Name
Notting Hill Genesis
Address
Address line 1
2 Killick Street
Address line 2
Address line 3
Town/City
London
County
Country
Postcode
N1 9FL
Are you an agent acting on behalf of the applicant?
○ No
Contact Details
Primary number
 REDACTED *****

Secondary number	_
Fax number
Email address	_
 REDACTED *****]
	_
	_
Agent Details
Name/Company
Title
Mrs
First name
Hannah
Surname	_
Moorhouse
Company Name
Constructive Thinking Studio Ltd
A dalua a a
Address line 1
Constructive Thinking Studio Ltd	7
	_
Address line 2 131 Mount Pleasant	7
	_
Address line 3	٦
	_
Town/City	7
Liverpool
County	_
Country	_
United Kingdom
Postcode	_
L3 5TF

Contact Details
rimary number
 REDACTED *****
Secondary number ax number
Email address
 REDACTED *****
Description of Pro	pposed Works
Please describe the propose	d works
Government Funded SHI	DF Retrofit. Works include: - Installation of - dMEV, loft insulation & solar PV panels (3.75 kWp) las the work already been s	started without consent?
Yes
) Yes) No
Site information	on is specific to applications within the Greater London area.
Site information Please note: This question	on is specific to applications within the Greater London area. elevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act
Site information Please note: This question The Mayor can request re
Site information Please note: This question The Mayor can request residence 1999. View more information on	elevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act
Site information Please note: This question The Mayor can request resisting. View more information on Title number(s)	elevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act
Site information Please note: This question The Mayor can request resisting. View more information on Title number(s)	elevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response.
Site information Please note: This question The Mayor can request residence 1999. View more information on Title number(s) Please add the title number Title Number:	elevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response.
Site information Please note: This question The Mayor can request residence information on the second of the sec	elevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response.
Site information Please note: This question The Mayor can request residence 1999. View more information on Title number(s) Please add the title number Title Number:	elevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response.
Site information Please note: This question The Mayor can request residence 1999. View more information on Title number(s) Please add the title number Title Number:	elevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. Per(s) for the existing building(s) on the site. If the site has no title numbers, please enter "Unregistered".
Site information Please note: This question The Mayor can request residence 1999. View more information on Title number(s) Please add the title number: Unregistered Energy Performation on the buildings of	elevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. Per(s) for the existing building(s) on the site. If the site has no title numbers, please enter "Unregistered".
Site information Please note: This question The Mayor can request re 1999. View more information on Title number(s) Please add the title numb Title Number: Unregistered Energy Performa	elevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. Her(s) for the existing building(s) on the site. If the site has no title numbers, please enter "Unregistered". Here Certificate
Site information Please note: This question The Mayor can request resistance 1999. View more information on Title number(s) Please add the title numb Title Number: Unregistered Energy Performation Do any of the buildings of Yes No	elevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. Per(s) for the existing building(s) on the site. If the site has no title numbers, please enter "Unregistered". Per(s) for the existing building(s) on the site. If the site has no title numbers, please enter "Unregistered".

Further information about the Proposed Development Please note: This question is specific to applications within the Greater London area. The Mayor can request relevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999. View more information on the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. What is the Gross Internal Area to be added to the development? 0.00 square metres Number of additional bedrooms proposed 0 Number of additional bathrooms proposed Development Dates
Please note: This question is specific to applications within the Greater London area.
The Mayor can request relevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999.
View more information on the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response.
When are the building works expected to commence?
05/2025
When are the building works expected to be complete?
08/2025
Materials Does the proposed development require any materials to be used externally? ○ Yes ⊙ No
Trees and Hadres
Trees and Hedges
Are there any trees or hedges on the property or on adjoining properties which are within falling distance of the proposed development? Yes No
Will any trees or hedges need to be removed or pruned in order to carry out your proposal?
○ Yes ⊙ No

Is a new or altered vehicle access proposed to or from the public highway? Yes No No No The proposals require any diversions, extinguishment and/or creation of public rights of way? Yes No Whicle Parking Please note: This question contains additional requirements specific to applications within Greater London. The Mayor can request relevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 248 of the Greater London Authority Act 1929. We more information on the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. Does the site have any existing vehicle/cycle parking spaces or will the proposed development addiremove any parking spaces? Yes No Biodiversity net gain Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the "biodiversity gain condition" requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015): Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is may belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply: A householder application means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the cutting of each of advellinghouse in or any purpose incidental to the episyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellinghouse in a building. Site Visit Th
Is a new or altered pedestrian access proposed to or from the public highway? Yes No No No No No Vehicle Parking Please note: This question contains additional requirements specific to applications within Greater London. The Mayor can request relevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999. Yaw more information on the collection of this additional data and assistance with crowling an accurate response. Does the site have any existing vehicle/cycle parking spaces or will the proposed development addiremove any parking spaces? Yes No No Biodiversity net gain Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the "biodiversity gain condition" requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015). Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition would not apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply a permission to change a subject to read a subject to the planning application, which the subject of an application for change of use or an application to change the number of diveilings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes The applicant is a new or altered pedestrian access proposed to or from the public highway? ○ Yes ○ No De the proposals require any diversions, extinguishment and/or creation of public rights of way? ○ Yes ○ No Vehicle Parking Please note: This question contains additional requirements specific to applications within Greater London. The Mayor can request relevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999. View more information on the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. Does the site have any existing vehicle/cycle parking spaces or will the proposed development add/remove any parking spaces? ○ Yes ○ No Biodiversity net gain Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to schieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015). Applicants for planning permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: "A householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes ○ No The agent
O Yes
On the proposals require any diversions, extinguishment and/or creation of public rights of way? ○ Yes ○ No Vehicle Parking Please note: This question contains additional requirements specific to applications within Greater London. The Mayor can request relevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999. View more information on the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. Does the site have any existing vehicle/cycle parking spaces or will the proposed development addiremove any parking spaces? ○ Yes ○ No Biodiversity net gain Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*. Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition would not apply a permission is granted, please confirm: □ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curlilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. ■ It is any belief that if permission is granted for the development to the enjoyment of t
Do the proposals require any diversions, extinguishment and/or creation of public rights of way? ○ Yes ○ No Vehicle Parking Please note: This question contains additional requirements specific to applications within Greater London. The Mayor can request relevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999. View more information on the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. Does the site have any existing vehicle/cycle parking spaces or will the proposed development add/remove any parking spaces? ○ Yes ○ No Biodiversity net gain Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity air condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)'. Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A" brouseholder application' means an application for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A" brouseholder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curliage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? ② Yes ○ No
Vehicle Parking Please note: This question contains additional requirements specific to applications within Greater London. The Mayor can request relevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999. View more information on the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. Does the site have any existing vehicle/cycle parking spaces or will the proposed development add/remove any parking spaces? ○ Yes ○ No Biodiversity net gain Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the "biodiversity gain condition" requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*. Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: □ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "\and "museholder application" means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? ○ Yes ○ No
Vehicle Parking Please note: This question contains additional requirements specific to applications within Greater London. The Mayor can request relevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act 1993. View more information on the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. Does the site have any existing vehicle/cycle parking spaces or will the proposed development add/remove any parking spaces? ○ Yes ○ No Biodiversity net gain Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the biodiversity gain condition requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*. Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: □ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A householder application" means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? ○ Yes ○ No The agent
Vehicle Parking Please note: This question contains additional requirements specific to applications within Greater London. The Mayor can request relevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999. View more information on the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. Does the site have any existing vehicle/cycle parking spaces or will the proposed development addiremove any parking spaces? ○ Yes ○ No Biodiversity net gain Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the "biodiversity gain condition" requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015). Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: □ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply A householder application means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curliage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? ③ Yes ③ No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom sh
Please note: This question contains additional requirements specific to applications within Greater London. The Mayor can request relevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999. View more information on the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. Does the site have any existing vehicle/cycle parking spaces or will the proposed development add/remove any parking spaces? Yes No Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015). Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curliage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No The applicant
Please note: This question contains additional requirements specific to applications within Greater London. The Mayor can request relevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999. View more information on the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. Does the site have any existing vehicle/cycle parking spaces or will the proposed development add/remove any parking spaces? Yes No Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015). Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curliage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No The applicant
The Mayor can request relevant information about spatial planning in Greater London under Section 346 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999. View more information on the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. Does the site have any existing vehicle/cycle parking spaces or will the proposed development add/remove any parking spaces? Yes No Biodiversity net gain Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*. Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A" householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No The applicant
New more information on the collection of this additional data and assistance with providing an accurate response. Does the site have any existing vehicle/cycle parking spaces or will the proposed development add/remove any parking spaces? ○ Yes ○ No Biodiversity net gain Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*. Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: ☑ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A" householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? ② Yes ○ No The applicant
Does the site have any existing vehicle/cycle parking spaces or will the proposed development add/remove any parking spaces? Yes No Biodiversity net gain Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015). Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No The applicant Biodiversity net gain Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015). Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No The agent The applicant
Biodiversity net gain Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*. Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No The agent The applicant
Biodiversity net gain Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*. Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? The applicant
Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*. Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? The applicant
Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015). Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? The applicant Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015). Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? The applicant land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015). Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? The agent The applicant 10% of biodiversity value. This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015). Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply "A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? The agent The applicant application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*. Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? The agent The applicant application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015). Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? The agent The applicant permission is granted, please confirm: It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply *A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? The agent The applicant
☑ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply *A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? ② Yes ○ No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? ② The agent ○ The applicant
*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? The agent The applicant curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? ✓ Yes ○ No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? ⊙ The agent ○ The applicant an application to change the number of dwellings in a building. Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? ⊙ Yes ○ No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? ⊙ The agent ○ The applicant
Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? The agent The applicant
Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? The agent The applicant
Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? Yes No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? The agent The applicant
 ✓ Yes ◯ No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? ✓ The agent ◯ The applicant
 ○ No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? ② The agent ○ The applicant
If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? The agent The applicant

OThe applicant

Pre-application Advice
Has assistance or prior advice been sought from the local authority about this application?
○ Yes ⊙ No
Authority Employee/Member
With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following: (a) a member of staff (b) an elected member (c) related to a member of staff (d) related to an elected member
It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.
For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
Do any of the above statements apply?
○ Yes ⊙ No
Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration
Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)
Please answer the following questions to determine which Certificate of Ownership you need to complete: A, B, C or D.
Is the applicant the sole owner of all the land to which this application relates; and has the applicant been the sole owner for more than 21 days? Yes No
Is any of the land to which the application relates part of an Agricultural Holding? O Yes No
Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate A
I certify/The applicant certifies that on the day 21 days before the date of this application nobody except myself/ the applicant was the owner* of any part of the land or building to which the application relates, and that none of the land to which the application relates is, or is part of, an agricultural holding
* "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.
 "agricultural holding" has the meaning given by reference to the definition of "agricultural tenant" in section 65(8) of the Act.
NOTE: You should sign Certificate B, C or D, as appropriate, if you are the sole owner of the land or building to which the application relates but the land is, or is part of, an agricultural holding.
Person Role
○ The Applicant② The Agent
Title
Mrs

First Name
Hannah
Surname
Moorhouse
Declaration Date
31/01/2025
✓ Declaration made Declaration
I/We hereby apply for Householder planning permission as described in the questions answered, details provided, and the accompanying plans/drawings and additional information. I/We confirm that, to the best of my/our knowledge, any facts stated are true and accurate and any opinions given are the genuine opinions of the person(s) giving them. I/We also accept that, in accordance with the Planning Portal's terms and conditions: - Once submitted, this information will be made available to the Local Planning Authority and, once validated by them, be published as part of a public register and on the authority's website; - Our system will automatically generate and send you emails in regard to the submission of this application.
✓ I / We agree to the outlined declaration
Signed
Hannah Moorhouse
Date
04/02/2025