

Leasehold Income Officer Job Profile

Job title: Leasehold Income Officer

Grade: Level 3 Zone 2

About Camden

Camden is building somewhere everyone can thrive, by making our borough the best place to live, work, study, and visit. Because we're not just home to UK's fast-growing economy. We're home to the most important conversations happening today. And we're making radical social change a reality, so that nobody gets left behind. Here's where you can help decide a better future for us all.

The ambition set out in We Make Camden is that everyone in Camden should have a place they call home, with no one sleeping on the streets. The vision for Housing Services is to work deep within our neighbourhoods and communities to improve our services with people who use and rely on them, to deliver those services in an informed and responsive manner, and to ensure that preventing homelessness and providing safe, secure and sustainable housing are key pillars of Camden's work to increase social equality and achieve the best outcomes for Camden residents.

About the role:

Working within an income team which serves 9800+ leaseholders, you'll be proactive in leasehold income recovery and account management, driving income collection and meeting performance targets while taking a relational and person-centred approach.

Example outcomes or objectives that this role will deliver:

- Work within a team to deliver a range of income recovery functions including collection of service charges, major works income and other home-ownership related income.
- Take a proactive approach to leasehold income collection and account management, managing risk through person-centred and timely interventions to prevent income loss as well as taking enforcement action where necessary.
- Work closely with colleagues across Housing and Repairs to provide a relational service to leaseholders.
- Support and advise the Leasehold Team Leader and escalate cases in a timely way.
- Where necessary, to support enforcement action by providing representation at Tribunals and Court hearings or gathering and providing evidence to support action.

About you

We're looking for someone who is enthusiastic about our ambition to make Camden the best place to live and work. Above all, you will be passionate about ensuring that services are delivered in a relational way, with the best outcomes for residents at its heart.

In addition:

You are passionate about housing equality: You believe everyone has the right to a home that is decent, safe and warm, and to feel part of Camden's community.

You are proactive: You take action to address problems and support people, as early as possible.

You keep services accessible: You believe in working to make services approachable, transparent and easy – going the extra mile to meet the diverse needs of residents.

You take a caring approach: You listen, understand and have others' concerns in mind. You are happiest when residents are.

You believe in doing things together: Collaborating and connecting are at the heart of what you do, ensuring no one gets left behind.

Here at Camden, we are committed to ensuring everyone has a place they can call home, the services you and your team deliver to our residents will recognise that as a landlord we are more than just bricks and mortar.

Skills Framework:

Proactive: Helping to prevent issues arising for residents, intervening early to offer support and let residents know about any other services they may benefit from, and how to access them. Sharing and acting on feedback from residents, to keep improving our services. Keeping accurate and clear records, so colleagues can access all the information needed.

Collaboration and communication: Working in a joined-up way with other teams, to act as one Council. If you can't help, you know someone who can. Speaking with colleagues and residents in a kind and helpful way, conveying information clearly, listening actively and resolving conflicts, being responsive and flexible. Building positive relationships with the local community, understanding diverse support and access needs.

Data, digital and systems: Using in relevant software and information systems including databases, property management software, and communication tools, is essential for efficient operations. Working with systems needed for the role, and an ability to record performance data in a clear and consistent way.

Equality, diversity and inclusion: Committed to, and will champion the council's ambition to make Camden a more equal, diverse and inclusive borough. An understanding of and respecting diverse cultural backgrounds, norms, and practices. An understanding of how to effectively engage with residents and stakeholders from various communities and promote inclusivity among team members and residents.

Safety and wellbeing: Understanding that safeguarding and health and safety are everyone's responsibility. Taking an active role in protecting residents' health, well-being, and human rights; enabling them to live free from harm, abuse, and neglect.

Working effectively with survivors and perpetrators of domestic abuse. Being trauma-informed and supporting psychological safety.

Income recovery: Managing a caseload of accounts proactively, taking action to ensure income is collected on time and in full. Prioritising work to reduce risk of income loss, ensuring the right interventions are taken at the right time to support leaseholders to make payment, and taking enforcement action where necessary.

Right to Buy, Major Works and Service Charges: Knowledge of regulations and legislation applicable to social housing, and specifically the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002, and Landlord and Tenant Act 1985. Understanding the legal and financial processes and issues associated with Major Works, Right to Buy, Service Charges and other home ownership related income. Understanding of the way that income recovery functions within a leaseholder service.

Financial awareness: Making financial decisions with budgets in mind. Working in a smooth and joined up way which promotes financial efficiency.

Knowledge of housing legislation: Knowing about the legal and statutory frameworks behind the services we deliver.

Partnership working: Ability to liaise effectively with internal and external partners and agencies to drive good and timely outcomes for residents, including those experiencing multiple disadvantages.

Diversity and inclusion

We want Camden Council to be a great place to work and to ensure that our communities are represented across our workforce. A vital part of this is ensuring we are a truly inclusive organisation that encourages diversity in all respects, including diversity of thinking. We particularly welcome applications from Black, Asian and those of Other Ethnicities, LGBT+, disabled and neurodiverse communities to make a real difference to our residents so that equalities and justice remains at the heart of everything we do. Click Diversity and Inclusion for more information on our commitment.

Agile working

At Camden we view work as an activity, not a place. We focus on performance, not presenteeism. We create trusting relationships, we embrace innovation rather than bureaucracy and we value people. Collaboration is the Camden way, silo working isn't. And in line with our relational approach, face-to-face conversations with residents often result in a better customer experience, so staff who work directly with citizens are likely to be in more than they're not.

At Camden we are proud to be one of Hire Me My Way's inaugural campaign supporters. Hire Me My Way is a national campaign led by Timewise, designed to increase the volume of good quality jobs that can be worked flexibly in the UK (www.HireMeMyWay.org.uk). Hire Me My Way aims to treble the number of available good quality flexible jobs to 1 million by 2020.

Asking for adjustments

Camden is committed to making our recruitment practices barrier-free and as accessible as possible for everyone. This includes making adjustments or changes for disabled people, neurodiverse people or people with long-term health conditions. If you would like us to do anything differently during the application, interview or assessment process, including providing information in an alternative format, please contact us on 020 7974 6655, at resourcing@camden.gov.uk or post to 5 Pancras Square, London, N1C
