

Dear Connie Marinetto

The Belsize Society considers the extended roof element to accommodate the staircase introduces an incongruous element to the roofscape which would be visible from street level and other neighbouring properties and would set a precedent. We wish to object to the current design and hope a better solution can be found.

Alan Selwyn for the Belsize Society