2024/5752/P	Jonathan Reed-Lethbridge	43 Murray Mews Camden London	12/03/2025 14:47:34	COMMNT	This house at 20 Murray Mews is a rare architectural gem. Very understated, It does not reveal much to the viewer from the street. It is the internal arrangement that sets it apart. It probably should have been listed many years ago. It will be very disappointing should this house be developed. So many 'conversion properties' in the Mews have shifted to bland the unique character of this Mews.
