Instructions to let a property available for rental will only be accepted if all furniture complies with the regulations. Failure to comply can result in prosecution.

(12) To maintain in good repair and working order all fixtures, fittings and furniture listed in the Schedule of Condition and to replace any such items which are incapable of repair provided the Tenant or sub-tenants are not responsible for the disrepair and where the Landlord fails to replace items as above the Tenant may repair or replace them and deduct the cost from the rent payable.

(12a) The Landlord confirms that all carpets, net curtains, curtains, furniture and other furniture and appliances (fridge, plumbing for washing machine, washing machine, cooker) shall be provided for the tenants use for the duration of the lease, with no guarantee from the tenant as to their condition or replacement at the end of the lease, whether they are present or missing from the property.

(13) If the tenant is required to affect any works to comply with the requirements of the tenants sub tenants, the tenant shall notify the Landlord, works are required to be carried out as soon as possible and no later than seven days, failing to do so will result in the tenant carrying out the works without further notice and charge or off set the charge against the rents due to the Landlord.

(14) The Landlord warrants to the tenants that all necessary consent from any superior landlord has been obtained for the tenancy created by this Lease.

(15) To keep the garden at the premises (if any) in a neat and tidy condition, and maintain such condition as and when deemed necessary by the agent. Failure to do so will result in the works carried out by the agents at the landlord's expense, the costs being deductible from the rent.

(16) Where there is evidence of pest infestation not caused by the act or default of the Tenant the Landlord shall, on being notified by the Tenant immediately eradicate the infestation and to provide the Tenant with documentary evidence of the contract. Failing to do so will result in the tenant carrying out the works without further notice and charge or off set the charge against the rents due to the Landlord.

5. IT is mutually agreed as follows:-

- (1) If the rent hereby reserved or any part thereof shall remain unpaid for twenty –one days after becoming payable (whether formally demanded or not) or if any Tenants covenants hereinbefore contained shall not be performed or observed the Landlord may at any time thereafter re-enter the Premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and thereupon this lease shall determine.
- (2) If the premises or any part thereof shall at any time during the said Term be destroyed or damaged by fire or other insured risks so as to be unfit for occupation and use and the policy or policies of insurance effected by the Landlord shall not have been vitiated by reason of any act or default of the Tenant the Rent shall be suspended until the Premises shall again be rendered fit for habitation and use.
- (3) Any notice served under this Lease shall be in writing and shall be served on the Landlord either personally or by leaving it for him at his last known address and shall be deemed served by the Tenant if sent by first class post to: Monks Rest, Hillside Road, Pinner, Middlesex, HA5 3YJ
- (4) If the Landlord can satisfactorily show that the occupation of the Premises by the Tenant's sub-tenant or other persons permitted by the Tennant to occupy is causing a nuisance or annoyance to adjoining occupiers the Tennant will use all reasonable endeavours to remove the said sub-tenants or permitted occupiers from the Premises.
- (5) In the event of determination of this lease for any reason before the expiry of the Term, by either party, the Rent shall be apportioned to the date of termination.

- (6) If any dispute whatever shall arise between the parties of this lease with respect to the rights, duties, or obligations of the parties under this lease or as to any other matters in any way arising out of, or connected with this Lease (except where the same relate to forfeiture) this matter in dispute shall be determined by a single arbitrator appointed by the President for the time being of the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors or any person authorised by the President to make appointments on his behalf on the application of either party in accordance with its Arbitration Acts 1950 to 1979.
- (7) If at any time during the Term a mortgagee of the Landlord shall serve notice on the Tenant requiring all or part of the Rent to be paid direct to such mortgagee the Tenant shall send a copy of such notice to the Landlord and as from the next date that the rent is payable until further notice from the mortgagee the Tenant shall pay the Rent as is required to such mortgagee as agent of the Landlord in full or part discharge (as the case may be) of the Tenants obligations under clause 4 (1) hereof.
- (8) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 4 (4) of this lease if at the expiration of the Term the Premises are not in the state or condition that they should be (having regard to the Tenant's obligations in Clauses 4 (3) and (5) hereof, the Landlord shall require the Tenant to repair or reinstate the Premises, or, shall accept compensation by means of payment of a sum equivalent to the reasonable and proper cost of putting the premises into their correct state.
- (9) The Landlord may at any time during the term determine the lease by service of a notice giving at least two calendar months prior notice in writing expiring on any date after expiry of such notice period. The process of gaining vacant possession may take up to 6 months to be achieved however, if the premises becomes vacant during the period of the notice, the same will be handed back immediately.

- (10) If the Landlord serves notice-requesting termination of the contract prior to determination date, the property will be returned to the Landlord as soon as it becomes vacant. ( as detailed in (9) above)
- (11) On the expiration of the contract if it is agreed that the contract shall be extended for a further period or subsequently renewed. The Lease will however continue from month to month after the expiry of the term until such renewal is agreed or alternatively ended by service of appropriate notice.
- (12) In accordance with the tenants policy to actively combat discrimination of all forms wherever it occurs the parties shall not discriminate directly or indirectly through applying conditions or requirements which cannot be shown to be justified. The parties shall not discriminate on the grounds of age, colour, disability, ethnic origin, gender, HIV status, marital status, nationality or national origins, race, religious beliefs, responsibility for dependents, sexuality or unrelated criminal conviction.
- (13) In the event of any dispute arising from breach of any of the clauses of this lease the same shall be determined by an arbitrator appointed by the parties and in default of such appointment a single arbitrator of the County Court in accordance with the Arbitration Act 1996 or any statutory modification or re-enactment of the time being in force and FURTHER it is agreed that the arbitrator shall have jurisdiction notwithstanding the amount involved exceeds the jurisdiction limit for the time being in force in respect of arbitration proceedings in the County Court and decisions shall be binding on the parties without prejudice to their rights of appeal on a point of law.
- (14) In the event that the Landlord shall sell the property within the fixed period of the lease, if the purchasing party wishes to terminate the lease (section 5.9) shall cease to be void, and the new purchaser is required to give notice of a minimum eight calendar months prior notice in writing expiring on any date after expiry of such notice period. The process of gaining vacant possession may take up to 6 months to be achieved however, if the premises becomes vacant during the period of the notice, the same will be handed back immediately.

- (15) Each of the parties shall bear and pay there own costs that occur prior to the reference.
