It's totally not with the style or spirit of the road. This was a poor business decision in the first place, with a hardware store just up the street. Sorry , but this just shows how much Layland doesn't understand who lives around this area and what people do.....eat and drink coffee! That is Belsize Park in a nutshell, re see all the expensive coffee shops which are full all the time! Nobody cares for another hardware store and the signs are just ugly as they are. Nobody wants to see these.
