Dear Sir,

In 1979 I bought my present flat as I fell in love with the back garden view, which had three old gorgeous big trees, I hardly saw the back houses hidden by the trees, a relaxing break after the work, as if I lived in the forest of the country.

My colleagues who visited me admired the back view and I felt very happy & lucky.

But four years ago the neighbor(30 Glenilla Road, London NW3 4AN) felled all the trees in spite of our entreaties. (I heard they would plant new trees after the completion of the building though.)

No more felling the tree Sycamore of 28B Glenilla Road NW3 4AN, please.

Best regards,

Tokiko Onda
