

To whom it may concern.

Leyland have blasted illegal signs all over their shop!

It seems extraordinary that this place was allowed in the first place. It has been garish from the word go!

Sainsbury's and Tesco's who agree to put up sophisticated signage in appropriate areas, were not allowed here to the detriment of all local residents, and yet this has happened.

Please get Leyland to minimize the signs.

Yours sincerely

Rosamund Irwin