2025/1833/P	rich	597A Roman Road	20/05/2025 21:18:02	SUPPRT	As an employee in a local building, I always look forward to the summer screen being built, it brings so much to the local area and the fact that it is free for everyone, is such a great thing, especially in this ever more expensive world we are in. Please bring back the screen this summer!
2025/1833/P	ed standring	5 Chestnut Plaza	21/05/2025 07:59:14	SUPPRT	This was a real success for the community and local businesses last summer and encourages al fresco dining. Important that it goes ahead again this summer

2025/1833/P	A J	St Giles Piazza	20/05/2025 21:28:10	SUPPRT	I fully support the installation of the screen at St Giles this summer. After an incredibly challenging few years for the hospitality industry, initiatives like this are not just welcome—they're essential. St Giles is a fantastic part of London, but like many areas, it needs reasons for people to keep coming back. A free, accessible, and community-driven activation like this gives locals and visitors alike a reason to explore, stay longer, and spend time—and money—in the area. For restaurants, cafes, shops, and bars still bouncing back from the pandemic, this footfall makes a genuine difference. This isn't just about a screen—it's about creating energy, encouraging connection, and giving the area a well-deserved buzz. It's about supporting the people who have kept their doors open through incredibly tough times. I can't wait to see the space full of life this summer.
2025/1833/P	Steven Wells	206 Hayling Road WD19 7PR	20/05/2025 13:42:35	NOBJ	I feel having the big screen for sport events in the summer would be lovely. It would bring an amazing atmosphere to the unfriendly area. As a local worker, I look forward to Central Saint Giles big screen every year, for a few months people can sit and relax and enjoy outside life and socialize with people. I've worked in this area for several years and I always enjoyed this area in the summer, sitting around on their chairs, relaxing, watching the big screen. There's nothing else around here like this, there's never no trouble, just people relaxing. It's a unique spot where you can catch up with friends, make some new ones, or simply people-watch while taking in the excitement of the game. The big screen always seems to bring out the best in people, and I love how it turns the entire area into one big, happy community. Plus, the restaurants on the piazza has everything from cold drinks, snacks and meals. What I think I appreciate most about the big screen, though, is how it transforms the area into a hub of activity. During the rest of the year, the area can feel a bit deserted, but when the screen goes up, it's like a switch is flipped and suddenly the whole area comes alive. It's amazing to see families, couples, and groups of friends all gathered together, and enjoying the beautiful summer weather.

2025/1833/P	Ric Bowe	St Giles Piazza	20/05/2025 21:24:06	SUPPRT	I'm hugely excited about the opportunity of a screen to St Giles this summer and I truly believe it's not just a great idea, it's an essential one. In a part of London where so much comes with a high price tag, this initiative gives something back to the local community: an open, welcoming space where people can come together, enjoy entertainment, and experience something special, all completely free of charge! St Giles is a vibrant neighbourhood, but accessible public experiences like this are far too rare. The screen offers a chance to inject energy into the piazza, create footfall for local businesses, and most importantly, provide a summer of connection, joy and cultural moments that don't cost a penny. At a time when people are feeling the pinch more than ever, this is a simple way to make a real difference.
