Dear Ms Peck

TOWN & COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990 (AS AMENDED) NATIONAL PLANNING POLICY FRAMEWORK 2012

4 Wild Court

Renewal of planning permission 2010/2282/P dated 10/08/2010 (Change of use of education institute (Class D1), offices (Class B1) and ancillary cafe to provide 86 self contained units for student accommodation in association with the London School of Economics).

Recommend No Archaeological Requirement

Thank you for your consultation dated 13 December 2013.

The Greater London Archaeological Advisory Service (GLAAS) provides archaeological advice to boroughs in accordance with the National Planning Policy Framework and GLAAS Charter.

Having considered the proposals with reference to information held in the Greater London Historic Environment Record and/or made available in connection with this application, I conclude that the proposal is unlikely to have a significant effect on heritage assets of archaeological interest.

I note from previous advice that the proposals are not considered to have an affect on any significant archaeological remains, as they will not involve any substantive below ground changes.

No further assessment or conditions are therefore necessary.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you require any further information. This response relates solely to archaeological considerations. If necessary, English Heritage's Development Management or Historic Places teams should be consulted separately regarding statutory matters.

Please note that this response relates solely to archaeological considerations. If necessary my Inspector of Historic Buildings and Areas colleagues should be consulted separately regarding statutory matters or Borough Conservation Officer as appropriate.

Yours sincerely
