With that in mind, any future proposals of change need to take into account the current community and services that are already in existence. Which is why the proposal to redevelop the site where there are several businesses and community services into flats will change Primrose Hill and not for the better. The very thing that I suspect the owner is looking to captialise on for financial gain will be depleted through the removal of important community, social and local businesses. I'm sure that Camden Council will be looking more into this proposal and I hope that, like myself, who had no idea about this redevelopment, will see that this doesn't present an opportunity to improve the local community but one that will, unfortunately help to remove it. The very thing that people come to Primrose Hill for, myself included. Thank you for your time.
