I am writing to urge Camden Council to reject any applications to knock down Athlone House in Highgate. This is an important historic building that should be restored. I strongly believe the original agreement to restore the building should be enforced. Furthermore, I feel that the approach of trying to wear down the public resistance by the repeated series of planning applications is wrong, and any approach to allow the building to deteriorate further to 'justify' their failure to restore the building should not be condoned.

Yours sincerely,
Carmel Eilon
