4th July 2013

Dear Bethany,

Minor Material Amendment Application for Guinness Court, St Edmunds Terrace, London, NW8 7QE

Please note that the application for the above includes Block A drawings only, as previously discussed between yourself and Galliford try Partnership (GTP). The Block A drawings are to replace the previous application made on the 21st of January 2013. Block B drawings will follow as a separate minor material application once the elevations have been agreed in principle with yourselves. We understand that Block B approval in principle is still ongoing and hence does not form part of this application.

We understand that Block A elevations have been discussed and agreed in principle with GTP and therefore have the pleasure in submitting the revised drawings for your review and sign off. We feel we have incorporated all the changes as requested by yourself and Charles Rose.

If you have any further queries please do not hesitate to contact me or GTP.

Yours faithfully,

Steven Attwood
