Dear Sir or Madam

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACTS

Reference:	P2013/4573/EIA quote on any reply	Type:	Environmental Impact Assessment - Scoping
Location:	Gifford Street Embankment, 351 Caledonian Road London N1 1DW
Proposal:	Formal request for a Scoping Opinion under Regulation 5 of the Town and Country Planning (Environmental Impact Assessment) Regulations 2011. The proposed redevelopment seeks to provide a residential-led mixed use development (approximately 18,000sq.m.) incorporating up to 160 residential apartments (Use Class C3); a commercial unit (approximately 150sq.m.) and ancillary non-residential space including energy centre (approximately 200 sq.m.) is also proposed at ground floors level, with ancillary and associated development including access, disabled parking provision, servicing and landscaping. Note that the application proposes development within a designated Site of Importance for Nature Conservation (SINC), (designated by the LPA as being of 'borough grade 1 importance'). Indicative loss of SINC is currently estimated to be 15% (1,723sqm) of the existing 12,068sqm of SINC within the site.

The above planning application has been submitted to Islington Council for determination. If you would like to make representations (objection, support or other comment) please write to me at the above address or submit 'online'. Although it is the council's practice to continue to accept representations up until the date of decision, if you wish to submit representations I recommend you do so before 13 December 2013. A guide to the planning process is provided overleaf.

Yours faithfully

Benjamin Dixon (case officer)

Islington Council will not consider any comments which are not relevant to planning.

What happens to your comments?

The case officer will consider your and other comments received together with the adopted policies of the Development Plan and associated guidelines before making a recommendation. The council is committed to implementing its policy of treating all people in an equal and fair manner. - a) Request amendments to the proposal that was submitted.
- b) Be approved, possibly with conditions.
- c) Be refused.

In the event of amendments being submitted, you may be notified again if the changes are significant.

Who makes decisions on planning applications?

- a) Planning Committee or Planning Sub-Committees (made up of elected Councillors) – The application will be put forward to a committee if it is for approval and is one or more of the following: the proposal is a major or controversial application, above a certain size, is contrary to, or finely balanced between policies, a legal agreement is required, due to the type and/or weight of objections, or is called up by Councillors or the Head of Development Management.
- b) The Director of Planning and Development or the Head or Deputy Head of Development Management (under delegated authority) – A decision is usually taken under delegated authority when it complies with planning policies, if objections have been received but have been met by revisions or conditions, or if the application is recommended for refusal.

How will you find out what has happened to the application

If you write to the council your correspondence will be available for public inspection. If the application is to be reported to a Committee you will be sent details of when and where that Committee is going to be held. Please be aware that these are meetings held in public (and not public meetings), subject to the discretion of the Chair of the Committee, you and any objectors may be invited to speak. Further details are given in the letter informing you of the Committee meeting date. The council does not send written notification to objectors once an application has been decided. However you can monitor the progress of the case and view any decision on the council's website.

Right of appeal

An applicant has a right to appeal against a refusal of permission and against the imposition of conditions. Once submitted, the appeal becomes the responsibility of the Secretary of State, delegated to The Planning Inspectorate – which will then determine the application. If an appeal is submitted and you have made representations, you will be notified and invited to make comments directly to the Inspectorate unless it is a householder application when no further comments can be submitted at appeal stage. Under current legislation, third parties, such as objectors, do not have a right of appeal against a Council's decision to grant or refuse permission.

Data Protection Act

As your application is valid the application form, any accompanying drawings and other supporting documents will be published on the council's website. Similarly representations about planning applications will also be published. In doing so the council's Development Management Service will endeavour to comply with the Data Protection Act. This will entail the non-publication of telephone numbers, email addresses and all forms of signature. Data published in relation to enforcement complaints will not contain any personal data.
