G. GROUNDS OF APPEAL

1. The roof terrace was carefully designed to minimise overlooking, diagrams in the Design and Access statement show that the balustrade would not be visible from directly outside the property on Warren Mews. The terrace does not therefore detract from the overall look for the facade of the building.
2. There are already a number of roof terraces on Warren Mews that are far more visible than the proposal.
3. There are numerous roof terraces throughout the Conservation Area.
4. Overlooking to the rear of the property already exists as windows with neighbours are looking directly at each other.
5. The proposal is to create a roof terrace on a building that has a number of adjacent flat roofs, some of which are roof terraces.
6. Neighbouring residential properties are currently undergoing reworking with new basements, juliet balconies and internal reconfiguration. The conservation area has historically undergone extensive change and modification to the point that no buildings are the same.

CHOICE OF PROCEDURE

There are 3 possible choices:- written representations, hearings and inquiries. You should consider carefully which method suits your circumstances before selecting your preferred option by ticking the box.

1. THE WRITTEN REPRESENTATIONS PROCEDURE _____ ☒

This is normally the simplest, quickest and most straightforward way of making an appeal. The 'Householder Appeals Service' written procedure is particularly suited to small-scale developments.

2. THE HEARING PROCEDURE _____ ☐

This procedure is likely to be suited to more complicated cases which require detailed discussion about the merits of a proposal. At the hearing the Inspector will lead a discussion on the matters already presented in the written statements and supporting documents. Although you may indicate a preference for a hearing, the Inspectorate will consider whether your appeal is suitable for this procedure against the criteria. You must give detailed reasons below or in a separate document why you think a hearing is necessary.

Please answer the question below.
